CENTRE INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURER (IQA) REGISTRATION

An FAA Centre must register at least one fully qualified IQA. The IQA will need to hold an internal quality assurance qualification and a subject certificate for the qualifications they will be quality assuring such as a current FAW Level 3 certificate or a valid Health & Safety certificate. The IQA must be independent of the training meaning that they cannot teach and conduct the quality assurance of the same course.

Please click here to view a list of IQA qualifications.

Please register below the Centre IQA/s ensuring that all qualifications applied for are covered for internal quality assurance.

Evidence of all qualifications will be required to be submitted with the application. FAA must confirm acceptance of qualification evidence and IQA registration before an IQA can be involved in the quality assurance of FAA qualifications.
